will we ever
 Forget

Within these pages is recorded with pictures and comments what we will remember best of our four years of high school life. Times passes swiftly, and what today seems very near, tomorrow will be a memory. But our Yearbook will be our barricade against time. It will keep alive for always our memory of Haaren.

A WORD FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Recently you have heard a good deal about the welfare state. Some of the country's leaders have attacked the idea; others have defended it. Certain securities that the welfare state guarantees undoubtedly contribute to the good life. A danger, however, is that the citizens of the welfare state may become too dependent upon the government and lose initiative. I sometimes think that high school today is like the welfare state in treating its students too much like children, softening the effects of a student's irresponsibility. Most of you seniors are leaving high school for jobs in industry. Your boss will not be so ready to excuse mistakes as your high school teacher was. We all hope that you won't find it too difficult to make the change from the sheltered life of the school to the more demanding life of the industrial world.

ACTIVITIES

The library . . . Haaren's land of books . . . where all was peace and quiet . . . the room with the highest Hooper Rating in the building . . . especially the day before a book report was due . . . and presided over by Miss Foshay and Miss Malmar, ever alert to guide us to the right shelf.

Will we ever forget . . . those treks to the auditorium every other Wednesday for Assembly . . . the hushed air of expectancy as we settled down, wondering what would be on the program. But no matter what it was—it was always entertaining and worthwhile. Our thanks, Miss Desmond!

The dean's lineup . . . where assorted culprits waited worrying . . . at last the long arm of the law is pulling them in . . . visions of pink cards and parent's interviews flashed before them . . . the door opened . . . a head of a service boy peered out . . . and snarled, "Next!" . . . Will we ever forget!!!

Do you remember . . . our favorite periods, the fourth, fifth, and sixth . . . the lines of panting students . . . the aroma of delicious food . . . the soothing music over the P.A. system . . . the sound of a broken dish . . . the oooooooooow's of a whistle . . . final clang of the bell and the stampede begins . . . Another day in the Life of a Haarenite.

The sciences . . . biology . . . where we studied the amoeba and paramecium . . . how our brain worked . . . chemistry . . . the drudgery of writing up experiments . . . and physics . . . where we were forever trying to find the specific gravity of iron.

Will we ever forget . . . health education . . . the quick change in the locker room . . . the rush to the gym . . . five minutes of free activity . . . then the whistle . . . the routine varied . . . rope climbing . . . basketball shooting . . . track . . . calisthenics.

American History . . . with world background . . . and everything in the world for us to remember . . . that enchanted period which brought to life the great adventures of yesteryear . . . how did we ever cram in so short a time so much of the past and the present?

English Eight . . . HAMLET . . . ARROWSMITH . . . GALSWORTHY'S PLAYS . . . and on and on . . . don't say "he don't" . . . avoid double negatives . . . watch your sentence structure . . . Senior English . . . No . . . we'll never forget!

MR. WEISSENBERG

To the G.O. goes credit for our dances with the girls . . . one at Washington Irving and the other at Julia Richman . . . and they gave us the movies . . . remember Spanish Main . . . Allegheny Uprising . . . Badman's Territory? And the popular music we heard every day at lunch. That, too, came to us through the G.O.

CLUBS

THE ARISTA . . . the honor society . . . where only brains need apply . . . they have fun too . . . Haaren's intellectuals relax at theatre parties . . . they organize their own softball and basketball teams . . . but never does play come before work.

SENIOR MEMBERS: Danville, Severa, Schmidt, De Jesus, Cohen, Manasse, Gavrilis, Papa, Weidman, Schwab, Goldberg.

THE MATH HONOR SOCIETY . . . boys with over eighty percent average are eligible . . . under the supervision of Miss Wurman, they study optional math topics . . . slide rule . . . non Euclidean geometry . . . topology . . . navigation . . . whew!! . . . it sounds impressive.

SENIOR MEMBERS: Rolon, Zoubandis, Raines, Santader, Appel, Jenna, Dubrin, Luckett, Kirsch, Tuitl, Martinez, Hom, Bergay.

THE DISCUSSION GROUP . . . where world affairs are discussed outside school hours . . . with the help of visiting speakers . . . and guided by Mrs. Hammond to consider how our country and other nations can bring about a better world.

SENIOR MEMBERS: Grach, Cozer, Montgomery, Leigh, Kirsch, Skowrow, Morris, Harrison, Eng, Carnes, Knight.

SERVICE SQUADS

THE PRINCIPAL'S SERVICE SQUAD

The M.P.'s of Haaren . . . the patrol who caught you red-handed and brought you in to the Dean . . . the big and brawny and law-abiding versus the small and puny and law-breaking Haarenites.

MAY I HAVE THIS DANCE?

Wham!!! . . . the Haaren jazz band goes into action with "Tuxedo Junction" . . . you look hopefully at a pretty girl . . . you walk over . . . you stand there hopefully . . . "May I have this dance?" . . . she nods . . . we're off . . . and the band is real "snappy" tonight . . . and the lady agrees . . . Will we ever forget Julia Richman . . . Washington Irving . . . the dances . . . the girls.

THE BROADCAST

The school newspaper is written and published by the students of Haaren High School under the guidance of Miss Matlin. The select group who serve on this paper are continually harried by assignments, deadline notices and headline writing. Entering the office any day we are greeted by a typical scene. A dozen erstwhile typists are arguing over who is to use the lone typewriter while a reporter is laboriously pecking away on that typewriter, writing his story. Now you can see where Kenny gets those peculiar ideas for "Tangled Wires." Despite these outward displays of confusion the BROADCAST has won many prizes in Journalism competitions among high schools of the country. Praise too goes to Mr. Richstone, the financial adviser, who makes us buy or else. And what can you buy for a nickel that will give you as much pleasure as the BROADCAST?

WILL WE

IT SEEMED HOURS

WE'LL GIVE IT TO YOU

WILL WE EVER FORGET . . . that February day in 1946. It was regents' week and the school in its silence awed us, the little freshmen. We spoke in whispered tones. We were ushered into the auditorium and kept waiting for what seemed hours. Occasionally the silence would be broken by a group of seniors laughing hilariously as they observed us through the door.

Suddenly we heard a sharp spine-tingling voice. It was one Doctor Herman Mantell. He reminded us of the responsibilities we "young adults" had. His final words we shall not easily forget:

" . . . And fellows, if you ever need a little advice or help, due to some difficulty or trouble, consider the faculty, your teachers, as personal friends. Come to us and WE'LL GIVE IT TO YOU!"

After these words of cheer, we loosened up a bit. We observed with a pang of disappointment, the lack of females in the school, and as the horrid realization came to us, tears could be seen in the eyes of some.

WILL WE EVER FORGET . . . the months went by speedily for some and tediously for others. By 1947 we had gone through "basic" and were habituated to high school "life." Most of us learned the little dark secrets and intrigues of the school. We no longer wondered why the rooms facing the shellac factory always had the windows closed or why vultures flew in circles around the school.

WILL WE EVER FORGET . . . "Doc" Brown standing majestically in rubbers and umbrella in hand, shouting above the falling water, "Rub it in, rub it in, boys. I'll teach you how to take a shower yet!" . . . Murray Phillips strumming his guitar in the auditorium and singing in a baritone, "El Rancho Grande," while the student body were at attention singing "The Star-Spangled Banner." And the time a cat exited from Mrs. Dardenne's organ during Mr. Franzen's informative "few words" in the assembly and sat on the organ and listened attentively; after which he joined the school in singing "Here's to Dear Old Haaren."

WILL WE EVER FORGET . . . Back in '47 when tradition was cast aside and the school received a much needed paint job . . . The G. O. elections that year brought forth such worthwhile themes as, "We cannot bring the girls back to Haaren but we shall endeavor

if elected, to have waitresses in the lunchroom, and remember, a vote for Blue and Gold is a vote for Blue and Gold!"

WILL WE EVER FORGET . . . 1948. It found most of us taking regents examinations for the first time. Those upper termers who had experienced the ordeal before were in no way stingy in their advice. Some advocated clever methods of passing the exam with "gyp sheets" concealed perhaps under a callous on the palm of the hand, or tattooed under the finger nails.

WILL WE EVER FORGET . . . Field Day, when the school cast aside its books and devoted its time to athletics. How proud we were when the students beat the faculty in the annual Student-Faculty soft ball game.

WILL WE EVER FORGET . . . our senior year, when freshmen and midgets became synonymous in our speech. We referred to freshmen as "the little ones" "Barnum's pygmies," whichever suited our comic taste. When we were not taunting "the little ones" we were busily adjusting ornaments on our recently acquired senior hats. Remember that poor fellow who got a concussion when he tried to add a television set?

Some may look back at our senior year with pain, remembering the "high finance" each student wrestled with. One student put it most aptly when he stated, "Listen, Bub, those ain't money bags under my eyes!" Others remember the ghastly shock at seeing their yearbook photographs for the first time. The general reaction was a long drawn out, "Ahhhhhh!"

WILL WE EVER FORGET . . . those last months at Haaren! Remember "Celebrity Night" when such stars as Vic Damone, Alan Dale, and Dizzy Gillespie adorned our stage with their talent. It was this night that Haarenites heard for the first time, and probably the last, Vic Damone and Alan Dale imitating Jimmy Durante to perfection, due to the faulty public address system . . . and who shall forget those musical programs during assembly when the next number, "Number 3 on the Hit Parade," was greeted by a round of applause, only to turn out to be Debussy's Clair de Lune. . .

WILL WE EVER FORGET? . . . No, we will never forget because these have been the best years of our lives.

Joy and sorrow will mark the exodus of the senior class from the Halls of Haaren. There is profound joy in the fact that they have been successful after four years of study. There is sorrow in our hearts as we see them in line for the diploma that marks an end to their stay at Haaren.

During our time at Haaren every Senior has proved his worth. With their knowledge as a torch in their hands they part to help enlighten the world. And the lights of many are sure to reflect honor to Haaren.

FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION

"Smilin'" Harry Roberts, an annex alumnus, promises to be occupying Room 113 for quite a while. Always a favorite, he has brought with him his "Ipana Smile" for the good boys and his deadly serious frown for those who are not. The service squads have as their head "one of the best."

Attendance Coordinator

Mr. Edward Long, attendance coordinator and English teacher . . . a hard person to fool because of his years of experience. He can pick out a "phony" letter of excuse by not even looking at the note . . . It's all in the mind and expression that tells the story for Mr. Long. Always trying to improve Haaren's attendance rating, Mr. Long is well qualified for his job.

Miss Wurman who is in charge of cutting most of the time and a teacher of mathematics some of the time, believes in a second chance. But try her patience by habitually cutting classes and she will cut you out as far as classes go for the term. A thankless job has she, but a better person for this responsible task would be hard to find.

MRS. SWARTZ
Lateness Supervisor

MISS WURMAN
Cutting Supervisor

Mrs. Swartz is a firm believer in the adage, "The early bird catches the worm." She's the early bird and she doesn't have to wait very long after nine o'clock any morning at any entrance to collect quite a sizable number of worms. Mrs. Swartz has done a lot to make us realize that promptness pays dividends.

IS JONES

Miss Tausky, the bright spot of official class 8A. She never gives up—always believing we're the best when we're very sure we're the worst. Patient, conscientious, kind! 8A's best friend. A lucky senior class who has her for its teacher!

Miss Daly has been officially ours for many terms. She has seen us early and seen us late, in trouble and out of trouble, so she knows us very well. Her ready smile and cheerful disposition made 405 a room to be remembered long after we have left.

Mr. Matz—his class, 8C—his subject, radio theory—his well worn words—"In your seat by the nine o'clock bell!" Will we ever forget how he'd stand up at his desk, demand attention, and proclaim, "Announcement!"? No, we'll always remember Mr. Matz for many things especially his interest in all that concerned us.

PRESENT?

Mr. Epstein has served as official teacher of two graduating classes during his career. He tells us we're the better one and we believe him because we like to hear nice things about ourselves. And Mr. Epstein should know how we are because we've been together a long time. Anyway we return the compliment because we think Mr. Epstein is "tops" too.

Mr. Bell, "8E's most eligible bachelor," is always about when a fellow needs a friend. He is frank, witty, sincere. We tried his patience at times but whose didn't we? He hasn't been as long in Haaren as we have, but we became friends quickly. A swell American history teacher and the best of official teachers!

MR. MEYERSON

Will we ever forget . . . that we owe much to our Group Advisers . . . that if it hadn't been for their advice and guidance, few of us would be candidates for graduation! At one time or another, we've known Mr. Ernstoff, Mr. Rosenberg, Mr. Meyerson, and the ladies, Miss Adlerblum, present, and Miss Baraldi and Miss Saunders (camera shy).

SPORTS OF

When the last member of the class of February 1950 leaves Haaren, with them will go some of the athletes that have been responsible for many of the great Blue and Gold teams down through the years. Let me explain myself by browsing through the roll call: Gomez, DaSilva, Lawes, Moore, and Johnson of the track team, Castagna, Buday, and Luongo of the diamond dwellers, Buday, McNeil, and Davis of the hoopsters, DiMasso and Cohen of the splashers, and Seefeld representing the soccer squad.

The first set of names belonged to the key figures on the cinder scene. Consistently these boys, combined with past Haarenites like Gittens, Atkinson, and McCalla, carried the name of Haaren victoriously across the finish line ahead of all competitors.

In sprints and short stretches it was Paul Moore who usually received the Blue and Gold's call. Paul, a master of the 100-yard dash, recently displayed his ability by winning the number three spot in the city standings.

Running the longer distances was the job of Robert Ginsburg, Norman DaSilva, and Al Lawes. Lawes, a miler, and DaSilva, a thousand and eight-eighty man, were both determined and courageous athletes, who many times finished strong despite numerous handicaps.

Luongo, Buday, Castagna

HAAREN

SOCCKER: Henriques, Critelli, Coach Sirota, Mueller, Biegler. Center: Fuchs, Moldenhauer, Co-Captains Schaller, Seefeld, Williams. First Row: Meadinov, Koutsoupis, Stammler.

The quarter mile stretches for the most part were in the hands of Joe Gomez and Robert Johnson, who combined their talents with team mates past and present to push Haaren's relay teams across the finish line ahead of their brother schools.

Like the track team, Haaren's diamond dwellers in the course of four years have lived up to all expectations. True, their record has not been as glossy as that of the tracksters, but there are times when the ability of athletes cannot be determined by scores alone. By measuring the talents of Haaren's stickmen, man for man, the Blue and Gold nine is comparable to any team in the metropolis. This is not only true, for any particular Haaren ball team alone, but for every baseball team that has worn a Haaren uniform into competition. The proof of this statement lies in the record books and in the persons of the Blue and Gold performers who have gone on to, or are going on to greater heights. A few of which are Richy Klien, who has long since departed for a Dodger farm, Rino Quatrini, who was last seen twirling for a minor league club of the Giants, and Toni Castagna, and Johnny Luongo, who graduate this term, and have contracts for the N. Y. Yankees and Cincinnati Reds awaiting them respectively.

Working endlessly with the team down through the years was Coach Norman Kraft, who in spite of his swimming team and Health Ed. commitments, saw fit to give his time and advice to the boys.

Co-Captain Seefeld

In reviewing the activities of Haaren's cagers, season after season, one cannot neglect mentioning names like Furey, Bookbinder, Fishman, Kugleman, Levy, Hayes, and Henry. It was these students that were constantly on the court playing their hearts out, only to find at the season's end that they were in no better than fourth or fifth place. But nevertheless the boys maintained their fighting driving spirit, and managed to make their sting felt. It seems now that with the newly installed Coach Kogel at the hoopster's helm, the team is destined to win.

While most Haarenites were home by the fireplace or the heater, the swimming team was out winning glory for her school and her coach, Mr. Kraft. Some of the outstanding members of this seemingly junior varsity of the Polar Bear Club were Felton, Bekofsky, Kadowaki, Cohen, Ferrara, Dols, Shultz, Carri, and Manasse. A good many of these splashers have left the Blue and Gold's beautiful "campus," but there are enough fine swimmers remaining to insure Haaren of another great nautical season. Some of the veteran members of the team received their highly skilled training under the hands of "Doc" Brown, who unfortunately is no longer with Haaren. If there ever was any debate as to the singular doctor's ability to turn out fine mermen, we can all agree on his all around knowhow, technique, and ability to teach the boys how to take a shower. But let us not get off the subject. Last season the boys compiled a fine record defeating many of the better squads of New York. Some of the prominent victories were Haaren's win over Printing 61-0, the topping of the High School of Aviation 43-24, and Haaren's finish over Franklin 61-6.

Down through the years it was always quite obvious that the soccer team has been Haaren's most successful squad. This is due to many reasons, the main one of which is Mr. Sirota. Another one is the fact that soccer is that type of sport that attracts boys with previous knowledge of the game and a natural ability to perform it. The record of Haaren's elevens through the terms has never been poor; the soccer team's winning ways go back as far as 1939 when soccer was a new sport in New York's high schools.

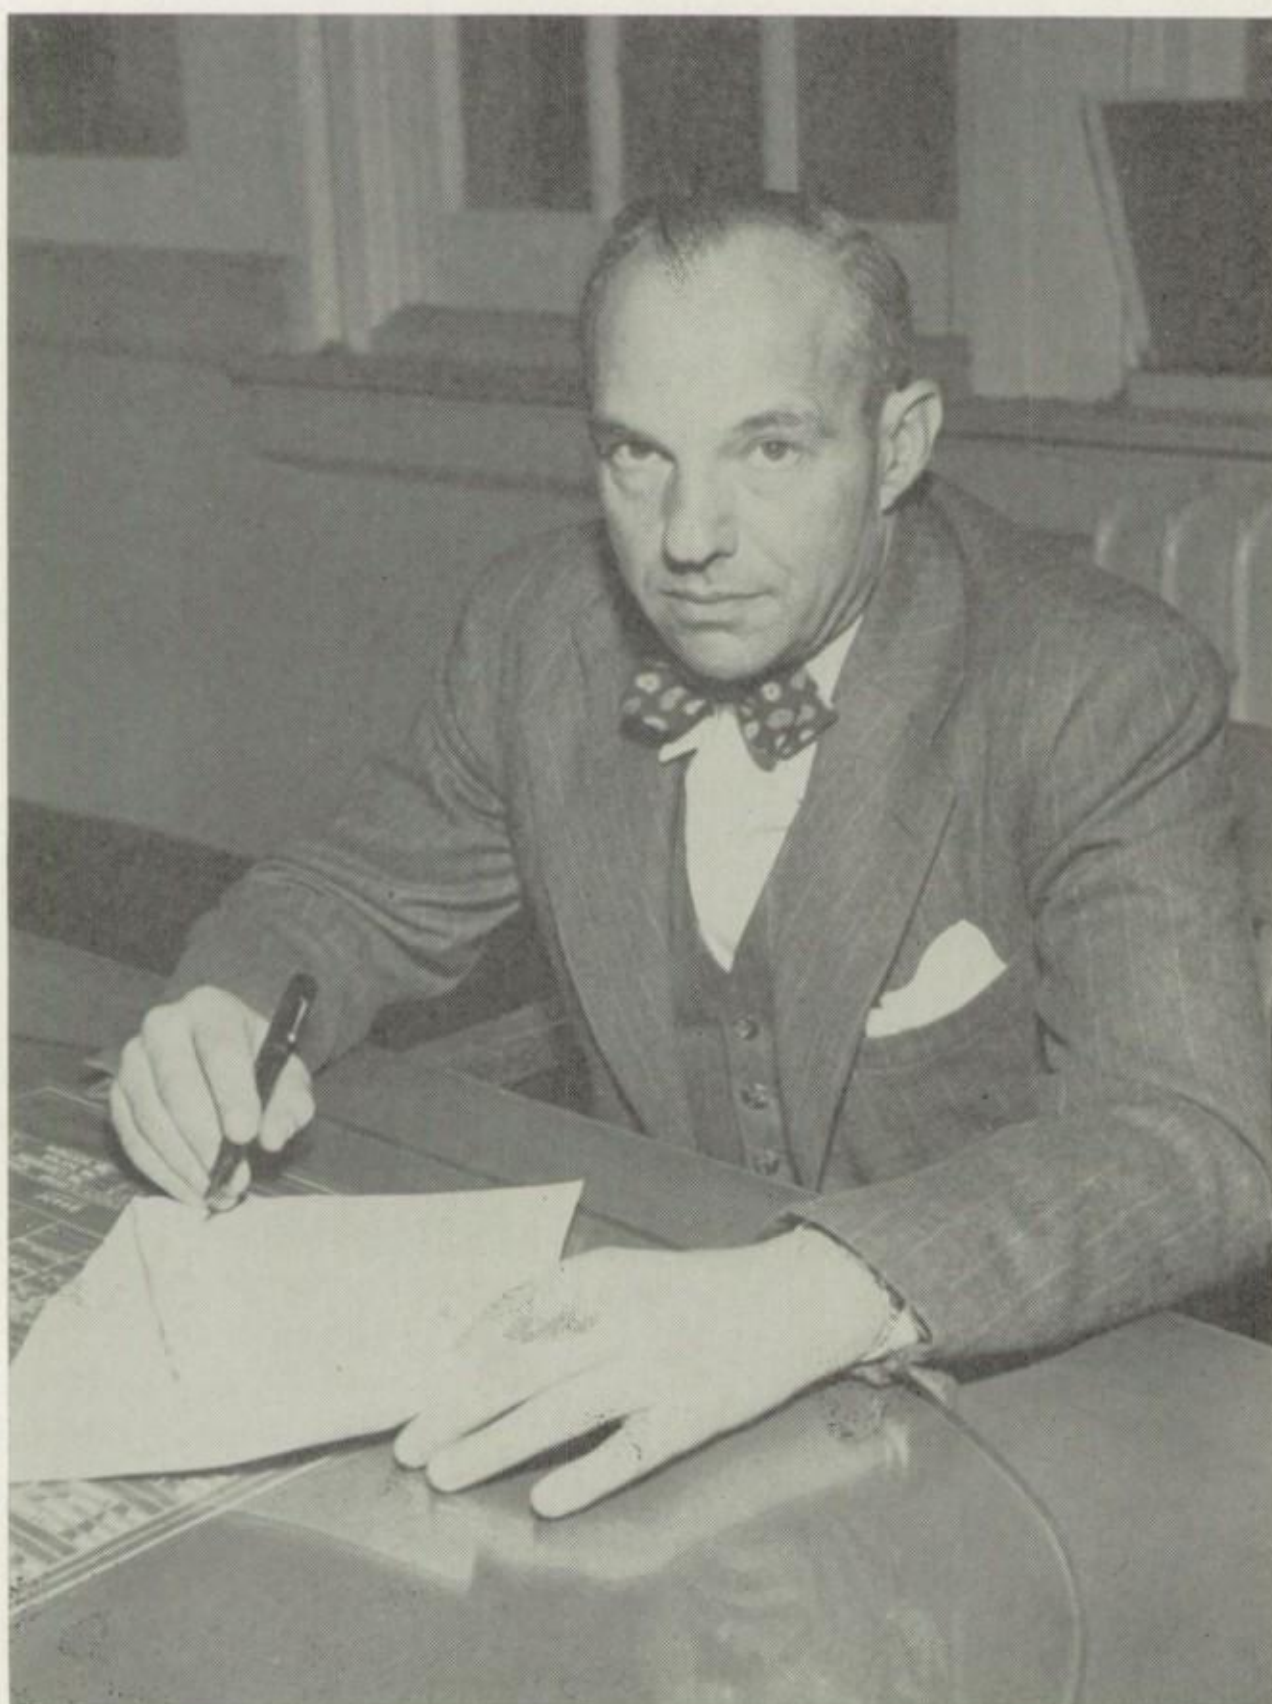

In the training of Haaren's soccer men Mr. Sirota applies some of the most unique and effective training methods in use. The training program consists roughly of the following: calisthenics, kicking, dribbling, trapping, and heading. Besides this he suspends a soccer ball above the heads of his players. The object is to jump towards the ball heading it in a set direction. The ball is raised or lowered according to the jumping height of the players. A variation of handball is also used, but the pounding away is done upon a soccerball.

Just looking at Haaren's soccer team in practice, or play, one realizes the effectiveness of these methods, and how a team with such ability, spirit, and coach, cannot miss being the crack squad that it is.

After you leave Haaren, you will undoubtedly look back many times and think of our school, maybe of her sports. If these pages serve in any way to make the memory of Haaren any dearer, then this resumé is a job well done.

Ask any ex-annexite what he misses most at Tenth Ave. and he'll snap back, "The teachers at 99th St." Each is a specialist in his field and together they form the greatest group of people you ever want to meet. Neither time, formality nor pride would ever stand in the way of a helping hand to one in need. Is there any former annexite who cannot honestly say thanks to Messrs. Wertheim, Philips, Benton and Co. for a swell time at 99th St.? "Coach's" punchball game during lunch was a deal everyone looked forward to; as was "Don Philipe's" Spanish classes and his magic guitar. As for the feeling of warmth, friendship and admiration when a certain Mr. Pinkus was near, nothing can compare to it. To list the things that various pupils owe to that selected staff would fill a book. To make a long story short, "Thanks," we say, "thanks a million!"

Will we ever forget—the front steps for seniors alone—no longer side entrances for us.

Will we ever forget—Columbus Circle where we frequently got caught in the midst of the traffic . . . where we always looked at the big clock to see if we were early or late.

Will we ever forget—our day's end when we would have a quick hot dog and then home or to work . . . tomorrow, another day.

Here's to Dear Old Haaren

Here's to dear old Haaren,
Ever to be
Fairest of high schools!
Give her three times three!
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Raise a rousing salvo
Echoing clear,
Hail to thee, Haaren,
Alma Mater dear!

We'll go out to win you
Fortune and fame,
We'll fight for freedom
And honor Haaren's name!
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Thank you, Haaren High,
For happiness here!
Farewell to Haaren,
Alma Mater dear!
